While completing his Honours degree, he began research on a MA degree in Political Science, which was obtained with distinction in 1984. His dissertation was entitled: "A Critical Evaluation of the Odendaal Commission of Inquiry into South West African Affairs, 1962-1963 with Specific Reference to Its Findings, Recommendations, and Implementation in Respect of Kavango: A Juridico-Socio-Political Analysis."

He was awarded the Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst (German Academic Exchange Service) Scholarship and began his studies at the university of Hamburg, West Germany, in 1983. At the end of 1984, he began doctoral studies in Political Science at Columbia University in New York City, USA on a Fulbright Scholarship. He received MA and MPhil degrees in 1985 and 1987 respectively. He is currently in the process of writing a doctoral thesis titled: "Political Socialization: A Process of Decolonization in Namibia," after completing all other PhD requirements at Columbia University.

He has accepted the Olof Palme International Fellowship at the Institut fuer Friedens-und Sicherheitspolitik (Institute for Peace and Security) at the University of Hamburg to undertake research at a future date.

University of Fort Hare

Mr Diescho has written a novel in English: "Born Only Once" to be published in the USA and Britain in 1987, a short novel: "Ngo Yange," and a play: "Eharo IyaHomba," both written in Namibian languages. He is also the author of numerous articles on the politics of Southern Africa for international journals and newspapers.

Eugene Conrad van Niekerk
