

of the young people in what we said, it struck us, that it might be a good thing to bring an alphabet sheet in our pockets, that we might give abroad to ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{those} children - and go on in this way with them until some plan for instructing them regularly shall have been ~~decided~~ ^{ultimately agreed upon} - I am ~~glad~~ ^{glad} to say that our two experiments our plan is really going to succeed admirably. In the second lesson we gave the ~~be~~ some of the days ~~could point out~~ were able to point out some of the letters - and such attention, & desire to learn - I am mistaken if ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~or~~ ^{of} ~~the~~ ^{the} boys will not turn out excellent scholars. Next time we intend taking an alphabet board with us & leaving it with the ~~three~~ ^{two} - ~~in~~ ^{on} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~last~~ ^{last} ~~week~~ ^{week} ~~all~~ ^{all} ~~up~~ ^{up} in ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~week~~ ^{week} ~~from~~ ^{from} ~~we~~ ^{we} ~~fixed~~ ^{fixed} ~~on~~ ^{on} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~alphabet~~ ^{alphabet} ~~sheet~~ ^{sheet} - the ~~conscience~~ ^{conscience} ~~was~~ ^{was} ~~lighted~~ ^{lighted} ~~up~~ ^{up} ~~with~~ ^{with} ~~intelligence~~ ^{intelligence} ~~&~~ [&] ~~delightful~~ ^{delightful} ~~curiosity~~ ^{curiosity} then when I pronounced the last of the letters in whole form in repeating after me the words one small canon ~~but~~ ^{but} ~~of~~ ^{of} Sabbath ~~May~~ ^{May} ~~27~~ ²⁷ - 1858 - There turned to be an audience of at least 150 in his hands in Church to day - My little Sanborn was much full of the attention sustained in all the sermons preached in the forenoon from Lev. XI - 9 - In the afternoon in English in Gal 10 - 12 - In the forenoon I baptised Helen Cairns infant - Empress. Lord's day Evening - June 27 - 1858 - The Sabbath service held at usual - Not such large attendance as there is generally - a number of our people from home. Mr. Spurgeon in the forenoon & in the evening in English - In the afternoon I preached upon the duties of parents to their children - Exod - Ephes VI - 4. Col 3 - 21 - But will God bless his work - What is the state of the preacher's heart as to personal consistent piety - He said look to me I said Sabbath June 20th last. Mr. & I were gone home - By invitation we went to some date to be kept in the anniversary evening of the Native Church - There is very much which I was calculated to cheer the heart in regard to the

