

purpose of good change among the people there - They have erected, by their own motions principally, a substantial Church - of the £500 which it cost, they raised £400 themselves - They are also contemplating raising £1000. for building five out schools - The Missionaries are acting upon a good principle in ref. to them by to make them work & give - The General aspect of things indeed, there indicated that the tide is turning - Let me learn some useful lessons from what I saw at Loosdale - But the Lord - will then make an instrument in thy hands, into that raising of what thou knowest me to be - To whom can I go Impresso. Lord's day, July 5th - Lord's supper distributed today for the second time since our coming to the Impresso - Preached in the forenoon from 1 Pet. 2-9 - Mr. Abner served the Table - addressed the communicants - (My flesh is meat indeed, & my blood &c) - After the distribution of the Elements - I addressed the communicants from these words - "Whom having not seen ye love" - John - (son of my Mother) came to the table on the morning, about going on my main class, was admitted - John's wife, formerly a member, joined the class ~~there~~ - ~~Indicated~~ our ~~time~~ ~~to~~ wait on Wednesday being after prayer meeting to converse with any person who may wish to speak with us - Mr. J. preached in the evening - "Let our passions be ruled by law" - John's wife's words did not come forward in consequence of a family disagreement, before then - Impresso July 9th 1858. Visited ten kraals along the Sappoloni - In all they would comprise a population of about five hundred souls - Received well in all - Found Sandile at home - had a congregation of about 24 persons at his kraal. Met with an instance of Kaffir barbarism & cruelty of Kaffir inquisitiveness & covetousness - The first when as we were taking the names of the people Mr. K. asked us the Impresso said in ref to his cattle - why what reason want to them for?

Charles. from them all for he combed them & they are already under work - I suspect that
