DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN BOTANY

COOPOOSAMY ROGER MURUGAS

A PROFILE

Roger Murugas Coopoosamy was born on the 1st of June 1969 at Tongaat on the North Coast of Kwa-Zulu Natal. He did his pre-primary and primary levels at Victoria Primary School in Tongaat. In 1989 he obtained his Senior Certificate at Tongaat Secondary School. In 1990, while working at the former University of Durban-Westville as a researcher in the Botany department, he was admitted for the Bachelor of Science degree, at the University of South Africa, which he obtained in 1994. He obtained his BSc (Hons) in 1996. In the same year, he joined the University of Fort Hare as a Senior Laboratory Technician. Subsequently, he registered for an MSc degree with the University of Fort Hare, which he completed in 2001. The title of his MSc thesis was "A study of the Taxonomy, Morphology, Anatomy, Medicinal and Antibacterial properties of selected species of Bulbine L. Wolf found in the Eastern Cape, South Africa". He was promoted to a lectureship position in the Department of Botany in 2001.

He registered as a Doctoral candidate in 2003. His doctoral thesis, entitled: "Biological activity and chemical profile of Aloe excelsa extracts in relation to their application to Traditional and Allopathic medicines" has contributed to scientific knowledge in the following areas:

- Taxonomical characterization of Aloe excelsa and its subsequent placement within the family Aloaceae

- The significance of Aloe excelsa metabolites in relation to anatomy and physiology of plant defense strategy, plant economy and their exploitation for the betterment of human health.

- Diverse biologically active compounds which have a great potential for application in health-related industries

- A scientific justification of the medicinal use of Aloe excelsa by indigenous people

- Elucidation of the pharmaceutical status of Aloe excelsa which is similar to Aloe vera in relation to herbal medicines

Mr Coopoosamy has published most of his work in International Journals. He has presented his research in many National Conferences.

He is married to Kumari and has two children (Megan and Tanya)

FLYMAN MICHAEL VOSA

A PROFILE

Michael Vosa Flyman was born on the 15th day of July 1971 in Francistown, Botswana. He completed his primary and secondary education in 1989. He then participated in the Voluntary National Service Scheme in 1990 before proceeding to the University of Botswana (UB), where he obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in 1995. After working for the Botswana Department of Wildlife and National Parks as Wildlife Biologist for two years, Michael Flyman returned to the UB to pursue a Master of Philosophy degree in Ecology which he obtained in 2000.

Michael Flyman registered for his PhD programme at the UFH in 2005. For his thesis, he carried out an investigation of the nutritive value of some Botswana indigenous vegetables with the goal of demonstrating that these valuable food plants could be integrated into food based strategies to alleviate malnutrition and promote rural development. The programme covered the ethnobotanical survey of plants used as wild vegetables in Botswana, proximate and mineral composition of selected vegetables, effects of plant maturity and different drying methods on the nutrient composition of these vegetables and other relevant information. Five peer-reviewed papers have been published from this thesis.

GICHANGI ELIAS MAINA

A PROFILE

Gichangi Elias Maina was born on the 23rd of September, 1962 in Kenya. He completed his primary and secondary education in 1982. He obtained his Bachelor of Applied Science (Hons) degree in 1992 from the University of Queensland, Australia and an MSc degree in Soil Science from the University of Nairobi, Kenya in 2004. To his credit he received a number of academic awards for outstanding performance in his undergraduate studies.

Gichangi registered for his PhD programme at the University of Fort Hare in 2004. For his thesis research he studied the extent of phosphate fixation in the Transkei region, South Africa and investigated the effectiveness of goat manure in enhancing phosphorus availability in soils that were found to have high phosphate fixation capacity. Two papers out of his work are under review by an international journal and three others will be submitted to peer-reviewed journals soon.

Gichangi is employed by the Kenya Agricultural Research Institute as a Research officer in Soil Fertility and Plant Nutrition and is a member of the African Network for Soil Biology and Fertility (AfNet). He is married to Nancy and they have two children, Alex and Alvin.

LUPUWANA PUMEZO

A PROFILE

Pumezo Lupuwana was born on the 30th of August, 1954 in the rural village of Frystaat, Ngqamakhwe in Transkei. He got his lower and higher primary levels in King Williamstown, Lesotho and Ngqamakhwe. He completed his Junior Certificate at Blythwood High School in Ngqamakhwe and obtained his Senior Certificate at St John's College, Mthatha in 1972. He then proceeded to Fort Hare where he completed a B.Sc degree in 1977. Pumezo went on to further his studies at the University of Cape Town where he obtained a B.Sc (Hons) in Microbial Genetics, Genetic Engineering, Recombinant DNA and Virology and also at the same university completed a M.Sc in Plant Virology with a dissertation entitled "Isolation, Identification and Characterization of South African Strains of Cucumber Mosaic Virus" in 1984. Pumezo went on to register for a Masters in Business Administration, which he completed in 1997 at the Henley Management College / Brunel University with his studies focusing on International Business Management and Trade, Corporate Strategy and Strategic Pharmaceutical Marketing. He also holds a Diploma in Sales & Marketing from Damelin College and a Diploma in Management from Henley Management College.

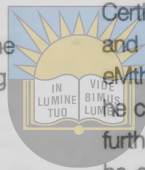

Pumezo's working experience spans from 1978 when he started working for South African Breweries as a Quality Controller at brewing centres in Prospecton, Durban; Kgalagadi in Botswana and Butterworth. On completion of his M.Sc in 1984 he got employed as a Biology teacher in Langa, Cape Town. In 1986 he was employed at Khanya College, a project of SACHED, as an Academic Project Head. In 1987 he moved to the Department of Chemical Pathology at Red Cross Children's War Memorial Hospital employed as a Natural Medical Scientist. Pumezo subsequently moved to Warner Lambert SA a pharmaceutical manufacturing company as a Medical Representative and was later promoted to Brand Manager in their Healthcare Division. In 1998 he got employed by Group Africa Enterprise Marketing, Broederstroom, and Johannesburg as an Account Manager and within the same company was promoted to Marketing Manager. In 2000, he moved to Oracle University, a division of Oracle Corporation, SA, the giant business solutions software manufacturer as an Account Manager. Since 2002, Pumezo has been employed by the Department of Public Works, Eastern Cape as a Regional Director in the districts of Alfred Nzo, O R Tambo, Chris Hani & Ukhahlamba and Amathole.

His doctoral thesis, entitled: "Integrating Natural Sciences and Indigenous Knowledge Systems for Rural Economic Development: A Model for Enterprise Development, Health and Nutrition Initiatives in the Eastern Cape, South Africa" sheds new light on the following areas:

- Development of a business model for a sustainable rural economy based on a value-chain promotion of preferred food crops and other high-value cash crops, and for poverty eradication;
- An integration of natural sciences and indigenous knowledge systems as a methodology towards the harnessing of natural resources in the economic transformation and enhancement of rural communities' livelihoods;
- Enterprise Development through the commercialization of processed and value-added products from some natural resources and the restoration of biodiversity;
- The linkage of the nutrient supplement production model with health in relation to the sustainability of rural economies;
- The introduction of the concept of Community-Public-Private-Partnerships as a vehicle towards the attainment of the strategic goals of sustainable rural development.

Some of this work is currently finding application in the upliftment of rural communities and improvement of the health status and quality of life in rural communities

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN ANIMAL SCIENCE

MUCHENJE VOSTER

A PROFILE

Voster Muchenje was born on the 21st day of June 1972 in Guruve District, Mashonaland Central Province, Zimbabwe. He obtained the BSc. (Hons.) in Agriculture (Animal Science) in December 1994, and an MSc. in Animal Science (Animal Breeding and Genetics) with a merit and the University Book Prize for the best MSc. Student in December 1996 at the University of Zimbabwe. He joined the University of Zimbabwe as a Lecturer in 1998 and joined the Zimbabwe Open University in 1999 as a Senior Lecturer. He is currently attached to the University of Fort Hare as a Visiting Scientist.

Voster Muchenje registered for his PhD programme in Animal Science (Meat Science) in 2005. For his thesis, a comprehensive study of the biochemical and physiological processes that affect the quality of meat from the indigenous Nguni, Bonsmara and Angus steers on natural pasture was conducted. The study was the first of its kind to unravel the biochemical and physiological processes and products that link tick-loads, growth performance, carcass characteristics, hormonal response to stress at slaughter, meat quality, health issues in meat consumption and sensory evaluation of meat. The thesis, thus, used the 'farm-to-fork' approach to the meat science discipline. State-of-the-art equipment and resources spread among three Universities, a research institution and a private laboratory were used.

around the Eastern Cape. Some of the work has been submitted for publication in international journals.

Mr. Lupuwana is married to Lungelwa Sondlela from Kwa-Ntonga Village outside King Williams Town and they live in Dimbaza. They have two daughters (Nombasa and Ncebayakhe) and three sons (Sindisa, Nkululeko and Ongeziwe).

It was found that, in addition to being able to withstand harsh conditions, the Nguni has beef quality that is as good as that of beef from European beef breeds. In the professional tasting of beef the Nguni beef was rated as the best.

From this thesis, seven peer-reviewed papers have been published in internationally acclaimed journals, such as Meat Science and Animal, and in international conference proceedings, such as the 53rd International Congress on Meat Science and Technology (ICoMST) that was held in Beijing, China in 2007 and the 8th World Congress on Genetics Applied to Livestock Production (WCGALP) that was held in Belo Horizonte, Brazil. Two articles have been accepted for publication by farmer advisory journals (The Nguni and The Bonsmara). Five manuscripts are at different stages of review in international journals such as Food Chemistry, Meat Science, Animal and Journal of Muscle Foods and two others are under consideration for the 54th ICoMST to be held in August 2008 in Cape Town, South Africa.

To his credit, Voster has published more than 30 peer-reviewed papers in journals and international conference proceedings. In addition, he is a reviewer of manuscripts from several journals. Voster is a member of the South African Society of Animal Science (SASAS). He is a family man with three children.

ABONG'O BENARD OMONDI

A PROFILE

Benard Omondi Abong'o was born on the 5th of August 1974 in Nyando District of Nyanza province in the Republic of Kenya. He attended his primary and secondary education in the same district and obtained his BSc. (Hons) from the University of Nairobi in 2000 majoring in Chemistry and Botany. He obtained a Master of Science degree (Applied Microbiology) in 2003 from the University of Botswana.

In June, 2004 Benard Omondi Abong'o joined the University of Fort Hare to pursue a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Microbiology. For his PhD thesis Abong'o worked on a health risk of Escherichia coli O157:H7, a water and food borne bacterial pathogen known for causing bloody diarrhea. The main objective of his study was to establish "The Prevalence of E. coli O157:H7 in water, meat and meat products and vegetables sold in the Eastern Cape Province of South Africa and its impact on the diarrheic conditions of HIV/AIDS patients". Six articles have so far been published from this study in NATED journals.

Benard is happily married to Teresa Atieno Omondi and they are blessed with four children – Victor, Felis, Collins and Roseline.

ANWO JOEL OLASUNKAMNI

A PROFILE

Joel Olasunkamni Anwo was born in Oyan, Nigeria, on 22nd October 1964. He received his primary and secondary education in Kwara State before proceeding to the Ahmadu Bello University in Zaria where he graduated with the Bachelor of Laws degree in 1990, and in the following year, he was admitted to the Bar. In 1997 he obtained the Master of Laws degree from Obafemi Awolowo University in Ile-Ife, Nigeria. He has been a full-time lecturer of several years standing at the Lagos State University, Lagos, Nigeria.

In his doctoral thesis, "A Comparative Analysis of the Rights of the Child with Particular Reference to Child Soldiers," Mr Anwo investigated the recruitment and involvement of children in armed conflicts, a practice that is internationally prohibited but is still prevalent and particularly grave in some African States. In his work he highlights many contested issues on the very definition of a child in various legal instruments, the complexity of modern conflicts which involves not only states, but non state actors and war-lords, the effects of war on children, particularly the girl children, and the difficulty of reintegration of child soldiers into mainstream society in the post conflict period. One examiner commented: "...this thesis is a welcome contribution to the better understanding and appreciation of the rights of children who are caught up in a very vulnerable situation" ... "[T]his work is a major contribution of practical application which will not only assist policy makers in politics and diplomacy but also lawyers, sociologists and psychologists as well as social workers who are dealing with issues of children and other sections of the population who find themselves in distress and unpredictable situations."

ODEKU KOLAWOLE OLUSOLA

A PROFILE

Kolawole Olusola Odeku was born on 1st June 1963, in Lagos, Nigeria. After completing primary and secondary education, he proceeded to the University of Lagos for his Bachelor of Laws degree which he obtained in 1988, and in the following year he was admitted to the Bar. In 1991 he obtained the Master of Laws degree also from Lagos University. Subsequently, he enrolled for the Masters in Business Administration at Lagos State University which he successfully completed in 1996.

His doctoral thesis is entitled: In Search of a Regime of Responsibility and Accountability for Perpetrators of Torture with Reference to Persons with Special Responsibility for Protecting Human Rights. The candidate examines the phenomenon of torture, a practice that has been declared an international crime under both conventional and customary law, and equally criminalized under the laws of many jurisdictions. He highlights striking cases of torture following the September 11th attack on the United States such as the treatment of prisoners of war at Guantanamo Bay and Abu Ghraib, as well as the practice of rendition and water-hooding. In this regard, the candidate provides an analytical understanding of the regime of torture and how to overcome some of its inherent weaknesses, by ensuring greater accountability and punishment not only of the state, but of the officials and other individuals involved in the process.

HONORARY GRADUANDS

PROFESSOR WISEMAN LUMKILE NKUHLU:

Doctor of Commerce (D Com) (h.c.)

Professor Wiseman Lumkile Nkuhlu was born on the 5 February 1944, in Cala in the Eastern Cape and is renowned as the first Black African to qualify as a Chartered Accountant in South Africa. Professor Nkuhlu currently enjoys a significant profile in South African public life as he is considered an important player in the area of Socio-economic Development.

He studied at the University of Fort Hare, Cape Town and New York University where he respectively completed the B.Com, CTA and MBA degrees. He served articles with Hoek, Wiehahn and Cross and qualified as a Chartered Accountant (CA) in 1976 where after he became a partner in charge of the Umtata office.

Hoek, Wiehahn and Cross subsequently merged with the Price Waterhouse Coopers and two years after this merger, Prof Nkuhlu resigned from the partnership to join the Independent Development Trust (IDT). At the same time Prof Nkuhlu also established his own chartered accounting company, W. L. Nkuhlu and Company, in 1990, in partnership with Mr D M Dondashe. Under the mentorship that was provided by Prof Nkuhlu and Mr Dondashe this company produced the third, fourth, and fifth Black African CAs in South Africa.

From 1976 to 1990, Prof. Nkuhlu combined his role in the auditing profession with lecturing at the University of Fort Hare initially and later at the University of Transkei where he also served as Dean of the Faculty of Economic Sciences. He served as Principal and Vice Chancellor of the University of Transkei from 1987 to 1991.

In keeping with his commitment to advancing chartered accountancy in South Africa, Prof Nkuhlu, was in the forefront of the formation of Association of Black Accountants of South Africa (ABASA) which became a catalyst for African students taking Accounting as a career of choice.

In recognition of his contribution he was elected President of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA) and served two terms, from April 1998 to April 2000.

Throughout his academic career Professor Nkuhlu retained a commitment to academic excellence, and this is evident by his appointment as the first Chairman of the Council on Higher Education. He served in this position for four years, from 1998 to 2002. The Council on Higher Education has played a major role in the restructuring of Universities and Technikons in South Africa in the democratic era.

His work in the IDT where he served as Chief Executive from 1993 to 1995, his Presidency of the Black Management Forum (BFM) from 1992 to 1995, as well as his chairmanship of the Development Bank of Southern Africa (DBSA) (1992 – 2000), are all interrelated and are consonant with his broad objective of social upliftment. This work would variously entail focusing on the needs of the poor, ensuring the availability of services to impoverished communities, as well as providing loans for housing projects and entrepreneurial development.

University of Fort Hare

Of particular significance for the University of Fort Hare is the fact that as Chairman of MEEG Bank Prof Nkuhlu has been instrumental in facilitating support to the UFH Department of Accountancy in providing bursaries to train 25 Black chartered accountants. Furthermore as Chairperson of the Eastern Cape Development Corporation (ECDC) has provided assistance to the University of Fort Hare as part of that Corporation's strategic objective of advancing development in the province.

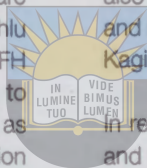

At a macro-economic level Prof. Nkuhlu is regarded as a key player in the formulation of economic policy for South Africa in the democratic era through his position as Economic Advisor to the President of South Africa, the Honorable Mr. T. Mbeki, and as Chief Executive of the Secretariat of new Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), from October 2000 to July 2005. He played a major role in the elaboration of the NEPAD policy framework and in promoting the programme both in Africa and internationally.

From 1989 to 2000, Prof Nkuhlu, served as director of a number of major companies, including Standard Bank,

South African Breweries, Old Mutual, Tongaat Hulett, BMW and JCI. Current directorships include: Kagiso Trust Investments, AngloGold Ashanti Limited and Datalec Limited and Metropolitan Limited. He is Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committees of AngloGold Ashanti Limited and Chairman of the Board of Metropolitan Limited. He is also Chairman of Pan-African Capital Holdings (Pty) Ltd and non-executive chairman of Bigen Africa (Pty) Ltd and Kagiso Investments.

In recognition of his contribution to education, business and development, Professor Nkuhlu has received a number of awards, including Honorary Doctorates from the Universities of the Free State, Stellenbosch, Cape Town, Pretoria, Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University and Witwatersrand; and merit awards from the National African Federated Chamber of Commerce, Association of Advancement of Black Accountants and the Black Management Forum. He was also awarded the President of Convocation Medal by the University of Cape Town in June 2004. The medal is awarded to graduates of UCT for outstanding community service.

Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Chairperson of Council and members of Council, Fort Hare staff and students, and distinguished guests, it is with distinct privilege that I present Prof. Wiseman Lumkile Nkuhlu for the conferral of the degree of Doctor of Commerce (honoris causa).

DR JACQUES ROGGE: Doctor of Laws (LL.D.) (h.c.)

Dr. Jacques Rogge was born in Ghent, Belgium on 2 May, 1942 and is both a medical doctor (orthopedic surgeon) and sportsman of distinction. He received his training in Medicine and Surgery from the University of Ghent. Dr Rogge is an accomplished sailor who represented Belgium in Olympic yachting in 1968, 1972 and 1976. He also played for the Belgian national rugby team.

Dr. Rogge served as President of the Belgian National Olympic Committee from 1989 to 1992 and as president of the European Olympic Committees from 1989 to 2001 before his election to the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in 1991. In 1998 he was elected to the Executive Board of the International Olympic Committee.

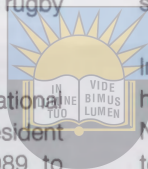

Dr. Rogge was elected as president of the IOC on July 16, 2001 in Moscow succeeding Juan Antonio Samaranch, who had led the IOC since 1980.

In the years preceding the collapse of apartheid, Dr Rogge used his position as a distinguished sports competitor to encourage other sportsmen and women to decline invitations to participate in any sports competition scheduled either to take place in South Africa or to include South Africa as a participating country.

There can therefore be no doubt that Dr. Rogge has, with much success, used his influential leadership position in the International Olympic Movement to secure and sustain South Africa's international sports isolation during the apartheid years – thereby making a vital contribution to the collapse of that system of socio-economic organization.

Indeed during his membership of the IOC, Dr. Rogge has been active in ensuring that the policy of the National Olympic Committee of South Africa (NOCOSA) to accelerate transformation in South African sport is respected by all international (sports) federations. Accordingly, in 2000 when there was intense pressure from South Africa's establishment media to ignore transformation and select Olympic teams on so-called "merit", Dr. Rogge insisted that the country's disadvantaged athletes be given opportunities for Olympic selection.

Under the leadership of Dr. Rogge, the IOC has created more possibilities for developing countries to bid for and host the Olympic Games. This is based on his belief that his vision – namely, that of a developing country host for the Games – be achieved in the not-too-distant future through government backing and new IOC policies that constrain the size, complexity and cost of hosting the Olympic Games.

One of the core points of IOC policy under Dr Rogge has been to limit the number of participants in the Summer Olympics to its current size of about 10,000. Significantly also under his tenure Dr Rogge has indicated that the IOC will show no tolerance towards corruption and the abuse of illegal substances (doping). Dr Rogge has also demonstrated qualities of modesty and humility in, at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, Utah, USA, he became the first IOC president to stay at the Athletes Village instead of the lavish 5-star hotels that many IOC members prefer. Dr Rogge also acted decisively in handling judging and doping scandals, much to the chagrin of several European countries who had assumed that their influence inside the IOC would prevent their offending athletes from disqualification. As a result, the first Olympic games under Dr Rogge's watch was hailed by many critics as a new era in the Olympic as it sent a message that the IOC would not tolerate corruption.

Dr Rogge's has utilized his position as President of the IOC to promote the values of human rights, democracy, non-racialism, and economic development of society.

In his current position as President of the IOC, Dr. Rogge has, ahead of the 2008 Beijing Olympics, been instrumental in using the universally acknowledged moral stature of the International Olympic Movement to pressure the government of the Peoples' Republic of China to expand the scope of human rights legally recognized by China and enlarge the space for the realization and enjoyment of those rights in contemporary Chinese society.

Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Chairperson of Council and members of Council, Fort Hare staff and students, and distinguished guests, it is with distinct privilege that I present Mr. Jacques Rogge for the conferral of the degree of Doctor of Laws (honoris causa).

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN EDUCATION

GWARADZIMBA ELLEN MUNYORO

A PROFILE

Ellen Gwaradzimba (nee Munyoro) was born in the Gutu District of Masvingo province in Zimbabwe. She did her primary education at Ngwindi primary school in Hippo Valley Estates, southern Zimbabwe. She went for her secondary education at Mashoko Mission but left school before completing her 'O' level at a tender age of 16 in 1976 to join the liberation struggle in Mozambique. She completed her academic studies in the refugee camps in Mozambique before proceeding to Nachingwea Military Academy in Tanzania for military training. Upon return, she was deployed in Gaza province a war front bordering Zimbabwe and South Africa as a guerrilla fighter.

At Independence in 1980, Ellen embarked on a self initiated educational programme that saw her rise from an academic nonentity to the feat we are witnessing today. In 1981 she obtained a certificate in secretarial studies at the Harare polytechnic; a diploma in secretarial studies at Mutare technical college in 1988; A Further education teachers certificate in 1989; a Higher national diploma in secretarial studies at Harare polytechnic; a Diploma in Adult education (1995) a Bachelor of education in adult education (1998) and a Master s Adult education degree (2002) all from the university of Zimbabwe.

During her academic stint at the University of Zimbabwe, Ellen won a merit award at diploma level (1995); a university of Zimbabwe book prize for both the B.Ed and M.Ed degrees in 1997 and 2001 respectively. Professionally she rose through the ranks from a mere Registry clerk to lecturer. She has also held the positions of Lecturer-in-charge, Head of Department, Head of Division, Vice Principal (Mutare Technical College), Warden, Assistant Registrar and Dean of student affairs at Africa University. She has served as a Board member at various academic institutions in Zimbabwe.

In 2004 she was awarded the prestigious Zimbabwe presidential scholarship to read for her PhD at the University of Fort Hare. Her Doctoral thesis is titled "An Investigation into causes, nature and consequences of Brain Drain from Institutions of Higher Learning in Zimbabwe". It is informed by the neo-Marxist structural theory which postulates that unequal power relations between rich and poor countries were responsible for brain drain. Her thesis proposes a holistic approach that advocates a paradigm shift in tackling the brain drain phenomenon. External assessors were highly impressed by the thesis. Three publications have since been produced from the thesis.

WADESANGO NEWMAN

A PROFILE

Ellen dedicates her Thesis to her late husband Cde. Trevor Godfrey Gwaradzimba who passed away just after Ellen completed her thesis on January 19, this year (2008) and could not witness this graduation day. She however, celebrates this achievement with her three sons Remembrance, Victor and Tanaka.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN EDUCATION

GWARADZIMBA ELLEN MUNYORO

DISSERTATION: "An investigation into the causes, nature and consequences of brain drain from institutions of higher learning in Zimbabwe during the period 2000-2005".

SUPERVISOR: Professor M J Matshazi

Newman Wadesango was born in Gweru District of Zimbabwe. He did his primary and secondary education at Takunda Primary and St Patricks High school respectively. In 1984, he enrolled for a 2 year Diploma in Veterinary Studies with the Mlezu Institute of Agriculture. He worked as an animal health inspector from 1986 to 1987. In 1988 he enrolled with the then Gweru Teacher's College for a 2 year Certificate in Education after which he taught Agriculture and Mathematics at Regina Mundi High School in Gweru for 7 years. It was during his career as an educator that he obtained the Bachelor of Education and Master of Education degrees in Educational Management with the University of Zimbabwe in the merit category. Alongside his professional demands, Newman has also occupied the following positions in the Public Service of Zimbabwe- Regional Chief Examiner, Chairman of the District Association of High School Principals, Provincial Chairman of the Association of High School Agriculture Educators and National Organizing Secretary of the Zimbabwe Teachers' Association. Because of his prowess, Newman was promoted to the post of high School Principal in 1989 – a position he held up to 2006 when he enrolled with the University of Fort Hare for his Doctoral studies.

University of Fort Hare
Together in Excellence

His doctoral research sought to ascertain the extent of teacher participation in decision making processes in Zimbabwean secondary schools. Newman argues that the problem of non-participation of teachers in decision making is of great concern to them as it discourages initiative and genuine commitment to their work. Newman believes that teachers have useful ideas but these are normally stifled or ignored if they are not fully involved in decision-making. His thesis established that teacher participation in strategic issues resulted in high staff morale and collegiality, low absenteeism, team work, commitment and a positive trend in students' academic performance. All these culminate in conducive, stress-free school governance. This study's findings are of significance to school heads in making them aware of the effect of teacher participation in organisational effectiveness. The study hopes to contribute to contemporary decision making theories and empowerment of school committees. The external examiners have described the research as an outstanding piece of academic work. Two articles from his thesis are already under review by publishers. Newman managed to complete his studies in a record- 2 year period.

Ozandla zakho zinamaneba wean.
Onyawo zakho zinamanxeba wean.

Ugazi lakho limkro yina na?
Ugazi lakho'Liphalalele thina.
Le mali enkhulu-na siyizile?
Lo mzi kaKhorwana Siwubizile?
Elele le, homna

ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF NTSIKANA'S HYMN

(Elele/homna – exclamation and praise words)
You are the Great God who dwells in the heavens.
You are the true shield
You are the true fortress.
You are the true forest (of refuge)
It is you who dwell in the highest

You created life, you created on high.
You are the creator who created the heavens
You created the stars and the Pleiades.
A Star flashed forth, bringing us your message.
You created the blind – did you not create them for a purpose?

The trumpet has sounded, it has called us.
You are the hunter who hunts souls.
You gather together flocks rejecting each other.
You are the Great Blanket with which we are clothed.

Your hands are wounded.
Your feet are wounded.
Your blood - why is it streaming?
Your blood was poured out for us.
Are we worthy of such a ransom?
Are we worthy to enter your homestead.

Elele homna !

NATIONAL ANTHEM & LORD'S PRAYER

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Nkosi sikelel' iAfrica
Maluphakanyis' uPhondo lwayo
Yizwa imithandazo yethu
Nkosi sikilela, thina lusapho lwayo

Morena boloka setjhaba sa heso
O fedise dintwa le matshenyeha
O se boloke, O se boloke Setjhaba se heso
Setjhaba Sa South Africa, South Africa

Uit die blou van onse hemel
Uit die diepte van ons see
Oor ons ewige gebergtes
Waar die kranse antwoord gee
Sounds the call to come together
And united we shall stand
Let us live and strive for freedom
In South Africa our land
