CURRICULUM VITAE

Norman George Kennelly HOLLIDAY

Norman Holliday was born in Potchefstroom, Transvaal in 1918. He finished his High School education at Grey College School, Bloemfontein.

After serving in the Union Defence Force (UDF) during the Second World War Mr Holliday continued his education at the University of the Witwatersrand where he obtained his BA degree. He then entered the commercial field. In 1975 he came to Fort Hare as Chief Liaison Officer.

While at Fort Hare he renewed his studies and obtained the intermediate and final certificates of the Public Relations Institute of South Africa. He then registered at Fort Hare as a BA Honours student in Political Science and was awarded the degree in 1980. At the graduation ceremony in 1982 the degree MA in Political Science was conferred upon him for his dissertation "A critical evaluation of the concept of the one-man-one-vote system as applied in the Third World Countries of Africa."

Wide interest in the independent and self-governing states has been shown in his thesis "A critical evaluation of some political systems and structures and a proposed alternative to the existing structure in the Southern African subcontinent south of the Limpopo."

Mr Holliday has published both fact and fiction and in 1976 won first prize in a novel competition organised by the EP Writer's Club, Port Elizabeth.

He has represented OFS and Rhodesia in Currie Cup swimming and played rugby, tennis and cricket. He now enjoys these sports from the sidelines as a spectator.
